MEMORANDUM & ORDER

20-cv-5111 (ENV)

VITALIANO, D.J.

On October 22, 2020, plaintiff Donald Graves, filed the instant pro se complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.<sup>1</sup> By order dated December 1, 2020, plaintiff’s request to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”) was denied and he was ordered to pay the $400 filing fee or file, within 30 days, an affirmation which pleads facts sufficient to place him within the “imminent danger” exception provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) as of the date he commenced this action, in order to proceed with this action.

More than 30 days have elapsed, and Graves has failed to respond. However, in light of Graves’s pro se status, the Court sua sponte extends the deadline an additional 30 days, until February 8, 2021, in order for Graves to comply. The Clerk of Court is directed to send a copy of the December 1, 2020 memorandum and order and this order to Graves’s last known address. If Graves fails to comply with this order on or before February 8, 2021, the action will be dismissed without prejudice. No extension shall be granted without good cause shown. No response from defendants to this complaint is required at this time.

So Ordered.
